

IRON COUNTY REGISTER SUPPLEMENT.

VOL. LII.

NUMBER 19

IRONTON, MISSOURI.

THURSDAY - - - OCT. 10, 1918.

Des Arc Items.

The Holiness, or Nazarene, people held their State Conference, or Assembly, as they they it, here. People, or delegates from all over the State assembled here. They are quite an intelligent people and some fine preachers among them. I heard Rev. Goodwin deliver a fine sermon from the chapter, 6th verse of Zecharias. The singing was fine, full of life. The holiness people are noted for fine singers.

Wm. Stevenson has sold his farm, stock, feed and everything at Des Arc, including his home. Consideration, $8,000. He expects to go to California on account of his health. We are sorry to lose this estimable family. We will miss them.

Newkirk & Co., of Ohio, have leased our lead mines and are drilling for lead, which they will certainly find.

Farmers around Charleston are not doing many silos. I talked with three farmers; they say corn is too high and and cease to put in silos.

J. L. Schmidt is running his handle factory on full time. He has a government contract.

Among the visitors attending the Assembly were: Mr. Fred Giez, of Ellington, Mr. and Mrs. Mason, of Salem, and many others who are strangers to me.

I did not finish my war story last week. My mother came to Richmond in a carriage, drove night and day, 72 miles from Charlottesville. Five men took me on a stretcher out of the hospital and placed me on a feather bed. She drove me 15 miles that evening. That night we stopped at a hotel and I was weak. She had to stay there with me for ten days. I had three toddlers and she finally got home with me. And in 60 days I was in front of the enemy at Sharpsburg. I was never sick any more.

We have about eight cases of influenza on College Hill, supposed to have been brought there by delegates from different parts of the State. E. W. Fitz is also down with it, but is better at this writing.

Dr. N. S. Farr and Dr. Fred spent Saturday in St. Louis.

E. W. Fitz has bought the stock of goods at the L. G. Schmidt stand.

The College people raised over $100.00 for different purposes. They gave a widow who had a deformed child $22.00.

ISAAC.

Bellevue News.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Hughes of Bismarck spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Townsend.

Mr. and Mrs. Auburn Edmonds and son, Louie, of Bismarck, and Mrs. John Turner of St. Louis were in our town a little while Sunday.

Mrs. Lorene Townsend left Sunday for Bismarck, where her husband is employed in Hunter's store.

Dr. G. W. Farrar of Ironton spent a few days the first of this week with his son and daughter, who are attending the farm.

At the recent annual conference at Charleston Rev. Henry Bollinger was returned to this circuit. Bro. Bollinger is a good and faithful pastor, and we all rejoice that he is to be with us again.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Henderson are visiting relatives, near Lesterville, this week.

In glancing over the Roll of Honor last Sunday our eyes fell on the name of our nephew, Wm. A. Robertson, of Tuscaloosa, Alabama, "killed in action." He belonged to the Rainbow Division and had been in France a year.

Mr. and Mrs. Doughty of Chicago were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Long.

ALPHA.

Goodland Items.

The glorious October weather, the autumn-tinted leaves, scarlet, russet, gold and brown, are delightful to behold and enjoy. God must love bright colors, or he would not have made such a variety to appeal to the senses of mankind.

Fodder saving is over. Wheat is coming up; all are preparing for winter. The very poor are to be pitied and helped. Food is scarce in this neck of the woods.

Mr. Webb Ray had a horse to die lately. A sad loss to him.

J. L. Brooks is making molasses.

Esther Burns, who was living with Mrs. Ray, has gone home.

Thos. Burns, who has been in St. Louis for some time undergoing treatment for stomach trouble, will soon be home.

Orville Crocker has bought an interest in J. F. Irvin's store at East End and will move his family soon.

We learned to day that the new disease is spreading through Crawford county. There were five deaths at Sigo last night.

Miss Letha Bay visited home folk at Buick Saturday and Sunday.

Our girls, as well as our boys, are leaving us.

Mr. Young and Elsie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed White, were married last week.

Carey White and Avis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peyton Pippin, were married Sunday, September 29th. We wish these dear young people much happiness.

Geo. Adams and family spent Sunday with Mrs. A's brother, on Neil's creek. Aunt Harriet Stricklin came home with them to spend a week.

John Love, wife and little daughter, Maude, are visiting in St. Louis this week.

We are getting ready for our bond sale next week. Several of our people have said they would be ready then.

Josh Stevens is still quite sick at Camp Funston.

Charley Downard was called home from Camp Funston last week to attend the funeral of his brother, Jesse, who died Saturday, September 28th. Mrs. Downard feels that she has lost two of her sons.

Randolph Adams and Topsy White have not been heard from but once since they landed "over there."

Coleman and Staples, cattle buyers, were driving out cattle from Goodland last week.

F. M. Adams has his machine shed under roof. Frank does not get to do much for himself these days, as he is kept busy filling out questionnaires.

The United Baptist Association meets next Saturday in Dent county.

"Bless my soldier boy and all other soldier boys!"

TIMOTHY HAY.

Doyle Items.

Jack Frost has paid us a visit, but hasn't done any damage so far.

Mrs. Emma Spipp received a card that her son, L. T. Shipp, had landed safely over seas.

F. M. Crocker of Bellevue is head sawer at the Stahluth saw mill.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. White called on Dr. Stafford one day last week for medical aid.

Mrs. A. I. Stricklin who has been on the sick list for some time is improving slowly.

Mrs. George Tall and children are visiting relatives at Cherryville.

Mrs. W. M. Parker, little Fay and Harry, Mrs. L. Kelley and daughter, Miss Irma, and Mrs. S. P. Stricklin and daughter, Miss Rebecca, were callers of Mrs. John Petty, who is still very sick.

The children of this place had a vacation last week; Miss Lucy Carl, our teacher, spent the week end at home.

Some of the farmers are plowing for wheat.

Every one must do all they can to help the boys win the war.

Rev. J. Hensley preached to a large audience at this place last Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Crocker is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Stricklin and Mr. E. Henderson attended the Cuba fair.

October 1. LONELY ONE.
